

PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION

Calling all budding photographers!

Here's your opportunity to take a fresh look at Cheshire's gardens through a lens. Cheshire Gardens Trust together with Arley Hall and Gardens invite you to enter our exciting photographic competition to show Cheshire Gardens at their best.

We are looking for photographs representing Gardens in Cheshire open to the public that you have taken in 2011. There are two categories – under-16 and over-16. And we have prizes in each category! Prizes include a family season ticket to Arley, a family day out at Stockley Farm, free membership of the Cheshire Gardens Trust and more

The entry fee is £5 for over-16s and £2 for under-16s and entrants are limited to one photograph per person. Photographs should be submitted as a 10"x8" print. Original, un-enhanced photographs only please – your photograph should represent the scene as you saw it.

The closing date for entries is Monday 6 June 2011. See over for more information.

The winning entries will be declared at the Arley Garden Festival on Saturday 25 June 2011. All photographs submitted will be mounted by us and be on display during the Festival (25/26 June) and for the following week.

So, why not get snapping and send in your best image of a garden in Cheshire open to the public.

Please register your interest by contacting Helen Robinson at Arley Hall helen.robinson@arleyhallandgardens.com or 01565 777353 ext. 31

Please send your entry as a 10"x8" print together with this tear-off slip to Helen Robinson at Arley Hall, Arley, Northwich CW9 6NA & mark the envelope CGT Photography Competition
